

2012 Switchback Songwriters Weekend April 20-21-22

If you love writing songs, this is your weekend! Last year's event was a huge success, so we are once again offering this very unique opportunity to visit one of the most beautiful spots along the Mississippi in a carefully restored mansion on an elegant estate for a weekend of creativity, camaraderie, relaxation and music.

Where is it taking place?

At the beautiful Four Mounds Inn in Dubuque, Iowa

Who should attend?

Anyone who loves to write songs or is a fan of songwriting, young or old, pro or amateur!

What are we doing?

Creating Songs—we will discuss songs, write songs and share songs!

Relaxation—sleep late, take naps eat freshly prepared meals created exclusively by the Four Mounds Inn-keeper.

Reflection—allow the natural beauty of the Four Mounds and the Mississippi river to restore your soul. Hiking trails and the nearby town of historic Dubuque, Iowa await you!

Read what Scott Momeny, an attendee at last year's Songwriters Weekend, had to say about his experience

Your staff:

Brian FitzGerald and Marty McCormack of Switchback along with some of the best songwriters on the scene today.

The cost:

Non-lodging including meals (2 breakfasts, 1 lunch, 1 dinner, wine and appetizer reception) and workshops - $259

Meals include:

Welcome fete on Friday night with beer, wine, soda and appetizers

Full Iowa breakfast with juice & coffee on Saturday and Sunday

Lunch on Saturday

Full dinner on Saturday night

Please indicate in advance any special dietary needs

For lodging information, please contact Four Mounds Inn

Non-lodging payment of $259 for the Songwriters Weekend can be submitted securely through PayPal.

For more information, please visit:

<http://www.waygoodmusic.com/tours-events.php>

